TRUHAUT, René, French toxicologist; b. Pontorson, Manche, May 23, 1909; s. Jules Alexis and Sidonie (Lucas) T.; D. Pharmacy, Faculty Pharmacie and Sciences, U. Paris, 1947, D.Sc., 1952; Lab. chief Curie Inst., Villejuif, Cancer Inst., 1933-40; asst. prof. Faculty Pharmacy, Paris, 1948-55, titular prof. toxicology and indst. hygiene, 1955-80, Expert for food additives and pesticides WHO, 1955—; expert for toxic substances in industry ILO, Labor orgn., 1959—. Decorated Légion d'Honneur. Mem. Internat. Union Pure and Applied Chemistry, Eurotox (pres. sec., 1961—), Internat. Union Contra Cancrum (asst. chem. com. on causative factors cancer). Research, numerous publs. on chem. carcinogenesis, chemotherapy of cancer, toxicology of thallium, fluorine, arsenic, lead, mercury, cadmium, indsl. solvents, food additives, pesticides; contributed to establishment of methodology for toxicological evaluation of these chemicals for the purpose of establishing acceptable daily intakes and tolerances; biochem. orientation of toxicological research. Home: Ville-Evrad, 2, rue Jean-Jaurès, 93-Neuilly S/Marne, France. Office: 4 Avenue de l'Observatoire, Paris, France.*

2062855458

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/trgl0000